This three bedroom double storey terrace is sure to impress with its level of quality inclusions. Featuring a separate lounge room followed by a large open plan dining room you will immediately appreciate the space on offer. The abundance of natural lighting through skylights will illuminate the quality polished floorboards throughout, and with ducted air conditioning throughout you can feel comfortable all year round. With an expansive granite bench top for cooking and array of polished wooden pine look storage, you will love the kitchen on offer, completed with gas cooking and a dishwasher.

Following the wide and spacious staircase upstairs are three large bedrooms, again with polished wooden flooring and wooden Venetians, a private balcony off the main along with an en-suite. All bedrooms offer mirrored built ins and the family will benefit from a main bathroom upstairs as
